APA 7th Edition Quick Guide

By Elizabeth Cvetko, Christine E. Young-Cook, Amy E. S. Grant, and Jennifer L. Wigglesworth

The American Psychological Association recently updated its publication manual for its 7th edition. There are some new and updated content regarding paper elements and format, bias-free language guidelines, in-text citations, and more than 100 examples of APA Style references including templates for every reference category. Here's an overview of some of the changes.

Elements & Format
(Sections 2.1-2.25)

- Recommended Fonts: Use the same font throughout the text of the paper: 11-point Calibri, 11-point Arial, or 10-point Lucida Sans Unicode; 12-point Times New Roman, 11-point Georgia, or normal 10-point Computer Modern (default font for LaTeX).
- Header: For student papers, include the short title of the paper in all caps. No "Running Head" required.
- Student Title Page: Include the title, author names, author affiliation, course number and name, instructor name, assignment due date, and page number.

Levels of Heading
(Section 2.27)

Level	Format
1	Centered, Bold, Title Case Heading Text begins at a new paragraph.
3	Flush Left, Bold Italic, Title Case Heading Text begins at a new paragraph.
4	Indented, Bold, Title Case Heading, Ending With a Period. Text begins on the same line and continues as a regular paragraph.
5	Indented, Bold Italic, Title Case Heading, Ending With a Period. Text begins on the same line and continues as a regular paragraph.

Writing Style & Grammar
(Sections 2.16-4.21)

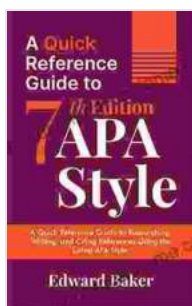

- The singular "they" is endorsed; consistent with inclusive usage.
- Always use a person's name/identified pronoun, not using "them" if a person uses the singular "they" as their pronoun.
- Also use "they" as a generic third person singular pronoun to refer to a person whose gender is unknown or irrelevant to the context of the usage.
- Do not use "he" or "she" unless referring to third person singular pronouns. Use combination forms such as "he or she" and "she or he" only if you know that these pronouns match the people being described.
- Do not use compound forms such as "his" and "her."
- If you do not know the pronouns of the person being described, reword the sentence to avoid a pronoun or use the gender "they."
