In this book, we've collected some of the funniest court transcripts, stories, and anecdotes that will have you laughing out loud. From the judge who accidentally sentenced a defendant to "life in prison with the possibility of parole after 20 years," to the lawyer who asked a witness if he was "still beating his wife," there's no shortage of side-splitting material in this book.

Here's a little taste of what you'll find inside:

- A defendant who tried to escape from court by disguising himself as a woman, but was caught when he couldn't resist adjusting his bra in public.

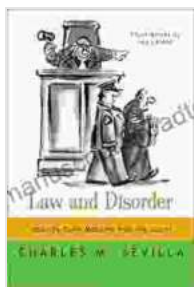

- A judge who Free Downloaded a defendant to "stop talking and start listening to the court reporter," only to have the defendant reply, "But I am the court reporter."
- A lawyer who objected to a question from the opposing counsel on the grounds that it was "leading," only to have the judge overrule the objection and say, "I'm not going to lead the witness, I'm going to let the lawyer lead the witness."
- A witness who was asked if he had ever been convicted of a crime, and replied, "Only the ones I was caught for."
- A judge who sentenced a defendant to "time served," only to realize after the defendant had left the courtroom that he had already served more time than the sentence.
