

Telling Time With Tarot Cards: A Guide to Using Tarot for Divination and Prediction

Tarot cards have been used for centuries for divination and prediction. In recent years, there has been a growing interest in using tarot to tell time. This is possible because the tarot deck contains a wealth of information about the past, present, and future. By learning how to interpret the cards, you can gain insights into your own life and the world around you.

The tarot deck consists of 78 cards, which are divided into two groups: the Major Arcana and the Minor Arcana. The Major Arcana consists of 22 cards, each of which represents a different archetype or life experience. The Minor Arcana consists of 56 cards, which are divided into four suits: Wands, Cups, Swords, and Pentacles. Each suit represents a different element and area of life.

To read tarot cards, you first need to shuffle the deck and then draw a number of cards. The cards that you draw will tell you about your past, present, and future. The meaning of the cards will vary depending on the context in which they are drawn.
