By Johnston McCulley

The Curse of Capistrano is a thrilling historical adventure novel by Johnston McCulley, the creator of Zorro. Set in 18th-century California, the novel follows the adventures of Don Diego Vega, a wealthy young nobleman who leads a double life as the masked vigilante Zorro.

When Don Diego's father is murdered by the evil Captain Ramon, Don Diego vows to avenge his death. He dons the mask of Zorro and sets out to bring Captain Ramon to justice. Along the way, he meets and falls in love with Lolita Pulido, a beautiful young woman who is also seeking revenge for the death of her father.

The Curse of Capistrano is a fast-paced and action-packed adventure story with plenty of romance and intrigue. McCulley's vivid descriptions of 18th-century California and his well-developed characters make this novel a classic of the genre.
