Christmas: The Incarnation of Love

With the arrival of Christmas, the collection opens its pages to the radiant mystery of the Incarnation. The Cistercian Fathers, with their profound understanding of God's love, illuminate the transformative power of Christ's birth. They invite us to marvel at the humility and grace of the divine Child, who came to redeem humanity. In their sermons and meditations, they explore the themes of hope, joy, and peace that resonate throughout this sacred season.

Lent: A Time of Penance and Renewal

As we journey through the penitential season of Lent, the Cistercian Fathers guide us with their insights into the meaning of sacrifice and self-denial. They remind us that Lent is not merely a period of deprivation but an opportunity for spiritual growth and renewal. Through their writings, they encourage us to embrace the disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, and to turn our hearts towards God in repentance and humility.

Easter: The Triumph of Life

With the triumphant arrival of Easter, the collection celebrates the victory of Christ over death. The Cistercian Fathers, with their unwavering faith in the resurrection, proclaim the hope and joy that this momentous event brings to the world. They explore the themes of redemption, reconciliation, and eternal life, inviting us to share in the transformative power of Christ's triumph.

The Saints: Models of Grace and Holiness

Throughout the liturgical year, the Second Clairvaux Collection honors the lives of the saints, those who have lived out the Christian faith with unwavering dedication. The Cistercian Fathers draw inspiration from these holy men and women, whose virtues and sacrifices serve as beacons of guidance and encouragement. They invite us to emulate their humility, their love for God, and their unwavering commitment to a life of holiness.
