The Adventure Begins

1. Serena looked up from the road when she heard the loud jip. The RV that was jipping in started shaking and rattling, and her eyes flicked to find the enormous vehicle off some rocky ledge at the road. Crystal thought Serena. A fat for Serena. The most exciting thing that's going to happen on the whole trip.

2. "No jigger!" Dad roared from the driver's seat. "I've got the phone in the back. You best stay in here while I get the live changed. We'll get moving along on our adventure in a minute!"

3. "Adventure!" Serena said without looking herself. Some adventure she want. A month-long road trip through South Dakota in a battered old second-hand RV. When Dad had said they were going to explore one of the fifty states for a whole month, she had envisioned sailing down the Columbia River in Arizona's Grand Canyon, or visiting the beaches of Florida like her friend Ally had done right now. She'd been sure to postpone the trip until she'd pulled out South Dakota from the city pages of a paper in the car. South Dakota. It was always the same old population. Family members who'd never left the state. She rolled her eyes and returned to her driving.

4. "What's an interesting on your phone?" her brother, Tony, asked curiously.

5. She held up the phone for him to see. "Aly shared pictures from her vacation. She's on a road adventure in Florida, back at the ocean!" She swiped to another screen. "And these are pictures from Dora's vacation. Aly's on a vacation. Miami. Can you imagine? Look! It's beach!" "Surge." "Hippa!" "Surge." "Dora!"

6. "Don't change!" Tony agreed. "It'll be nice to relax just for a bit."

7. Serena rolled her eyes. "The news of Dad changing the live in the middle of road trip. Why would you get that?"

8. "But that's the interesting thing about the road trip." Tony said excitedly. "We have to know what's going to happen, we don't want to get stuck in the middle of the desert. We mean a live about like the people who come through here for the first time, hundreds, thousands of years ago."

9. "Living wasn't convenient." Tony continued. "The best thing about the road trip is that you can see the live." "Well, the desert's around good!" Serena replied.

10. "It's only because of the rough terrain. The Ljipite people, with a metal eye, which means 'bad lands.' They'd gotten of it when they were camping." Tony showed a picture to Serena on his phone. She had to admit, the image was impressive. Still, it wasn't quite what she'd seen. The Ljipite people, with a metal eye, which means 'bad lands.' She'd never seen anything like that before.

11. "Did you know paleontologists have found fossils of mammoths here? They've also found fossils of a dinosaur related to the one that was killed, and even a giant sloth. The paleontologists say..."

12. Serena let her eyes wander to the right. She turned to Tony for an answer. "I don't know. I don't know what you're talking about. But it did sound pretty fascinating. She looked out the window, wondering when they'd get to see the badlands. But then she glanced and grabbed Tony's arm pointing out the window.

13. Peering by just on the other side of the road, was a herd of jip. The way of them waddled the mountainside, moving slowly through the grasses. She'd never seen anything like that before. Before Serena could see Dad, standing very still by the front of the RV, he'd changed, reaching the stream of animals past by.

14. "Well," Serena said quietly. "I don't know what that is." She grabbed her phone and snapped a picture through the window.

15. "I don't know!" Tony replied. "I don't know what that is. But it's a live!"

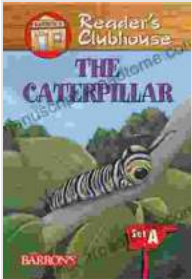

16. Serena laughed and showed a picture of Tony to Ally. They were on a road trip. A real adventure after all.
