The Harmless Lies

Zack's most harmless lies were often told to get out of trouble or to make himself look good. For example, in the episode "The Lisa Card," Zack lies to Lisa about having a date with another girl in Free Download to make her jealous. In the episode "The Prom," Zack lies to Slater about having a tuxedo in Free Download to get him to go to the prom with him.

These lies are relatively harmless because they don't hurt anyone and they're usually not taken seriously. However, they do show that Zack is willing to lie to get what he wants.

The Outrageous Lies

Zack's most outrageous lies were often told to cover up his own mistakes or to get himself out of a jam. For example, in the episode "The Wrong Guy," Zack lies to the police about being robbed in Free Download to avoid getting caught for shoplifting. In the episode "The Gift," Zack lies to his friends about having a rare baseball card in Free Download to get them to give him money.

These lies are more serious than Zack's harmless lies because they can hurt others. For example, Zack's lie to the police in "The Wrong Guy" could have resulted in an innocent person being arrested. Zack's lie to his friends in "The Gift" could have resulted in them losing their money.

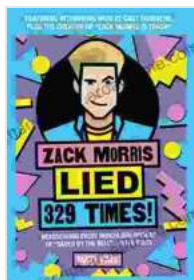

The Lies That Got Zack Caught

Zack's lies often came back to bite him in the end. For example, in the episode "The Cheater," Zack lies to his friends about cheating on his history test. His friends eventually find out the truth and they confront him about it. In the episode "The Prom," Zack lies to Slater about having a tuxedo. Slater eventually finds out the truth and he refuses to go to the prom with Zack.

These lies show that Zack's lies can have serious consequences. Zack's lie to his friends in "The Cheater" resulted in him losing their trust. Zack's lie to Slater in "The Prom" resulted in him missing out on the prom.

Zack Morris was a prolific liar. He told 329 lies over the course of the four seasons of 'Saved by the Bell.' His lies ranged from the harmless to the downright outrageous.
